

Swallowed Tooth

Dear Madame Tooth Fairy,

I regret to inform

We have a deviation from the norm

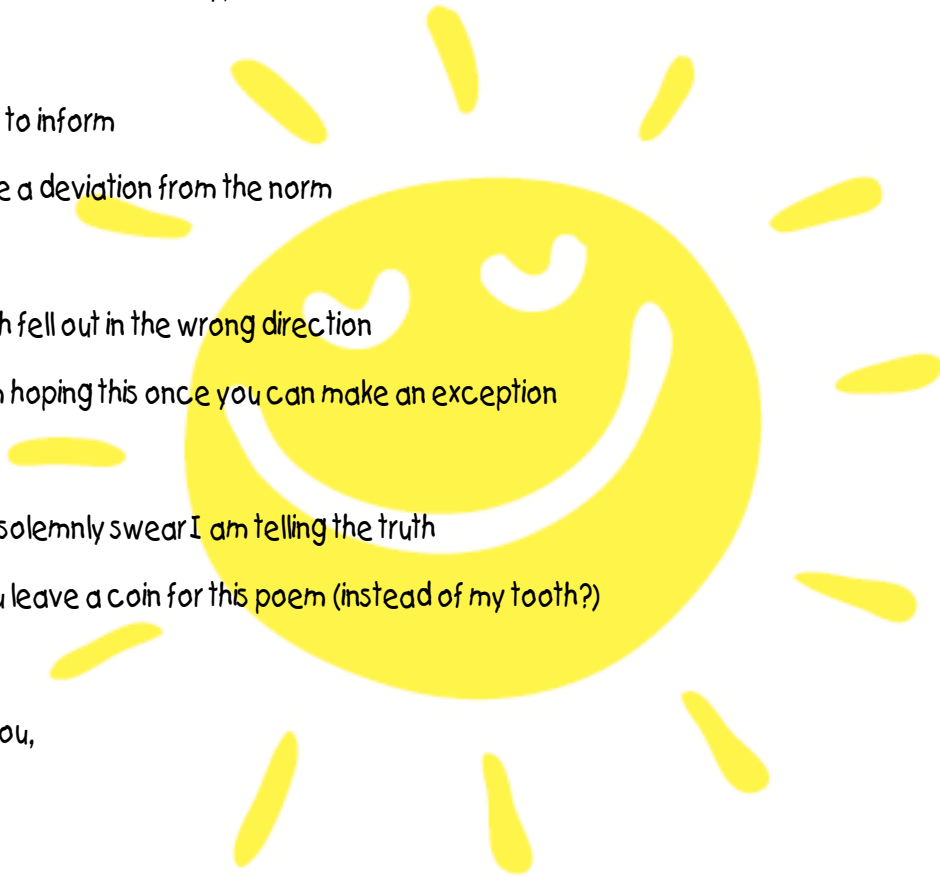

My tooth fell out in the wrong direction

So, I am hoping this once you can make an exception

Since I solemnly swear I am telling the truth

Can you leave a coin for this poem (instead of my tooth?)

Thank You,

Wiggly Tooth

Dearest Tooth Fairy,

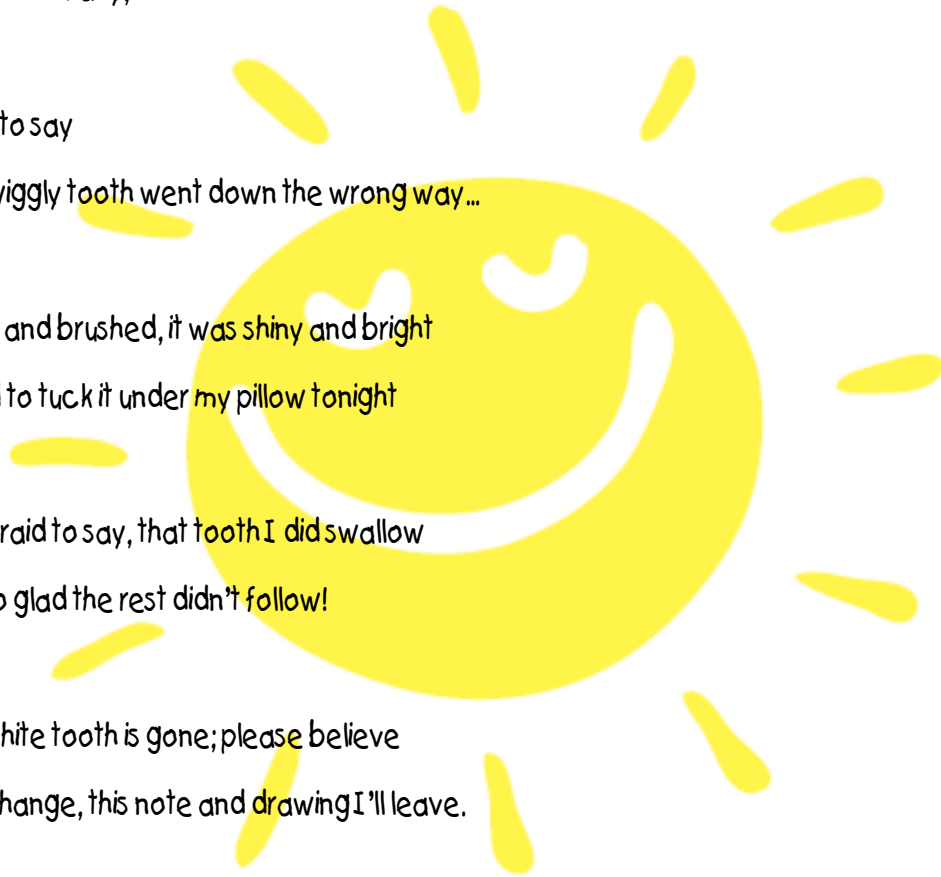

I am sad to say
That my wiggly tooth went down the wrong way...

I brushed and brushed, it was shiny and bright
I'd hoped to tuck it under my pillow tonight

But I'm afraid to say, that tooth I did swallow
I'm just so glad the rest didn't follow!

My little white tooth is gone; please believe
So, in exchange, this note and drawing I'll leave.

Thank You,

Lost Tooth

Tooth fairy, tooth fairy,

My tooth went away

I lost it today

And it won't come your way...

My dentist, will tell you, tooth fairy, it's true

Could you leave me something so I won't be blue?

Thank you,
